School Equipment Check-Out

Dear Parent or Guardian:

Your signature below means that you assume responsibility for returning the loaned School property as specified below. A designated school staff member is providing you with training in how to use this equipment properly and may be contacted if you have additional questions.

You are advised that the loaned equipment is for the sole use of you/your child.

You acknowledge that you will return the designated equipment on time and in the same condition as when you obtained it. Failure to return the equipment on time and in the same condition as when you obtained it may result in a requirement to compensate the School for the loss or poor condition of the device.
